Instructions: It is Princeton’s policy to require information from both parents in order to determine eligibility for financial aid. By completing this form, you are requesting that your non-custodial parent’s information be excluded from the financial aid process. Before we can make this decision, we need the following information. You must provide all information requested below.

1. Parents’ Current Marital Status Divorced Separated Never Married

If divorced or separated, year of divorce or separation: _____

2. Statements from Student and Custodial Parent

Both you and your custodial parent must submit personal statements to help us better understand the circumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) you feel is relevant should accompany the statements.

3. Third-party Statements

Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party’s name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements may not be from family members or friends.
