Certification

All members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2021 edition)

I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University.

I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that if my sibling’s costs don’t align with what was reported on the Princeton Financial Aid Application, the expected parent contribution may change.
