Non-custodial Parent Waiver Request 2025–26 Academic Year

F 609.258.0336 E pfaa@princeton.edu finaid.princeton.edu

Student Information

Na	me: DOB:
PU	PUID (for current students):
Instructions: It is Princeton's policy to require information from both parents in order to determine eligibility for financia aid. By completing this form, you are requesting that your non-custodial parent's information be excluded from the financial aid process. Before we can make this decision, we need the following information. You must provide all information requested below. Enter "N/A" or "unknown" for questions you cannot answer. Waiver requests with missing information will not be considered. Upload the completed form through the My Financial Aid portal for currently enrolled students, the financial aid portal for applicants, or the secure Financial Aid Document Upload for athletic recruits. Please note, a parent's unwillingness to pay or contribute to educational expenses is not grounds for a waiver.
Ple	ase report monetary values in your nation's currency. Currency used:
1.	Parents' Current Marital Status □ Divorced □ Separated □ Never Married
	If divorced or separated, year of divorce or separation:
2.	Non-custodial Parent Contact Information
	Name:
	Address:
	Email: Phone:
3.	Approximate number of times the non-custodial parent and student had contact with one another during the last twelve months?
4.	When was the last point of contact? MM/YYYY:
5.	What was the nature of the contact? Email Phone call Text In person Other:
6.	Has your non-custodial parent ever claimed you as a dependent on a federal tax return?
	If yes, what is the most recent year?
7.	Did your non-custodial parent pay child support in 2023?
	If yes, indicate total amount paid for you and sibling(s):
	• Please indicate if the child support was: Voluntary Court-ordered Garnished Wages
8.	Has your non-custodial parent paid child support in 2024? Yes No
	 If yes, indicate total amount paid for you and sibling(s):

If no, indicate last year child support was paid:		o For how many months?
If yes, indicate the total amount of support provided:		If no, indicate last year child support was paid:
10. Are you covered under any insurance plans (e.g. health insurance) by your non-custodial parent?	9.
11. Are there any legal orders limiting your non-custodial parent's contact with you?		If yes, indicate the total amount of support provided:
11. Are there any legal orders limiting your non-custodial parent's contact with you?	10.	re you covered under any insurance plans (e.g. health insurance) by your non-custodial parent? \Box Yes \Box No
 If yes, please explain and attach documentation to this form. Required Supporting Documentation Statements from Student and Custodial Parent Both you and your custodial parent must submit separate personal statements to help us better understand the circumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) you think is relevant should accompany the statements. Third-party Statements Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is		If yes, what type of insurance?
Required Supporting Documentation 1. Statements from Student and Custodial Parent Both you and your custodial parent must submit separate personal statements to help us better understand the circumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) you think is relevant should accompany the statements. 2. Third-party Statements • Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. • The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. • The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. • The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University.	11.	re there any legal orders limiting your non-custodial parent's contact with you? \Box Yes \Box No
 Statements from Student and Custodial Parent Both you and your custodial parent must submit separate personal statements to help us better understand the circumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) you think is relevant should accompany the statements. Third-party Statements Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition)		If yes, please explain and attach documentation to this form.
circumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) you think is relevant should accompany the statements. 2. Third-party Statements • Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. • The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. • The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. • The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University. □ I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.		··· ·
 Attach two statements from third parties who can verify the circumstances regarding your relationship with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University. I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.		rcumstances surrounding the non-custodial parent. Any supporting documentation (e.g. legal order, police report) with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records. The statements may not be from family members or friends. Certification Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University. I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.	2.	nird-party Statements
Members of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with University processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing accurate information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. Deliberate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations in the first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, Rules, Responsibilities, 2024 edition) I certify that the information contained within this document and all enclosures is complete and accurate. I understand that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University. □ I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.		 with your non-custodial parent. The statements should be on professional letterhead and include the party's name, contact number, the number of years they have known you, and their relationship to you. The statements must be from individuals familiar with your situation in a professional capacity such as a counselor, clergy, teacher, or lawyer. The statements must speak to their first-hand experience regarding the non-custodial parent, and whenever possible, supported by source documents, such as a reference to school or medical records.
that misrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by Princeton University. □ I confirm that I have answered all questions and attached all required supporting documents. I understand that incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.	Mei Univ acci Deli in th	ers of the University community are expected to be honest and straightforward in their official dealings with sity processes, activities, and personnel. This obligation includes honoring contracts and agreements and providing te information on official forms and documents as well as to official University personnel, offices, and committees. rate violations of this provision will be considered serious offenses; subsequent violations, or systematic violations first instance, will be considered extremely serious. (1.1.5 Honesty and Cooperation in University Matters, Rights, incomplete waiver requests will not be reviewed.	tha	isrepresentation or falsification on this and any financial aid document will result in penalties to be determined by
Custodial Parent Signature: Date:
	Cus	lial Parent Signature: Date:

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____